2008 OLYMPIAN

Worlds Media Notes

About the Championships

- Berlin is the site of the 12th IAAF World Championships. Past hosts were : Helsinki 1983, Rome 1987, Tokyo 1991, Stuttgart 1993, Göteborg 1995, Athens 1997, Sevilla 1999, Edmonton 2001, Paris 2003, Helsinki 2005, Osaka 2007.
- Berlin has a population of almost 3.4 million people that fills an area of 890 km², including people from more than 200 different countries.
- The World Championships were held as part of the Olympic Games until 1980. Following the commercialization of athletics, the International Association of Athletics Federations (IAAF) began to organize its own World Championships.
- From 1983 (Helsinki) to 1991 (Tokyo), the IAAF World Championships in Athletics took place every four years; thereafter they were held every two years.
- The IAAF World Championships will be housed in the Berlin Olympic Stadium (seating capacity of 74,218) in the district of Charlottenburg in Berlin.
- It is expected that 2500 athletes from around the world will compete at this year's World Championships in Athletics.
- A total of about 3,500 media representatives will be coming to Berlin to report on the mega-sporting event around the world and events will be broadcasted in over 190 countries.
- The most medals won by an individual at the World Championships is 14 (3 gold, 4 silver, 7 bronze) by Marlene Ottey (JAM). The most by a man is 10 (8 gold, 1 silver, 1 bronze) by Carl Lewis (USA).
- The most championships contested is 9 by Canadian Tim Berrett. Kevin Sullivan follows in a large list of athletes who have competed in a total of 8 World Championships.
- 22 World Records have been set at a World Championships.

About the team

- Currently ranked 7th in the world, Gary Reed is entering his 3rd consecutive IAAF World Championships. His last appearance in 2007 saw him win silver in the 800m.
- The youngest member of the team is Kimberly Hyacinthe at 20 years, 140 days. Three other members of the team are 20, Sam Effah, Amonn Nelson and Brianne Theisen.
- The eldest member of the team is Alice Falaiye at 30 years, 234 days.
- Bryan Barnett comes into Worlds as Canada's fastest man over 100m and 200m. Barnett completed the sprint double at the Canadian Championships in early July marking the first time since Nicolas Macrozonaris achieved this feat in 2003.
- Perdita Felicien is a 2 time Worlds medalist; gold in 2003 and silver in 2007.
- The best placing by a Canadian women at a World Championships in the hammer throw was set by Jennifer Joyce in 2005 finishing 20th in qualification with a throw of 64.34m. Look for that mark to fall in Berlin with recent Canadian record holder Sultana Frizell and Joyce on the team.
- Same can be said for the best mark at Worlds in the women's long jump. Alice Falaiye owns the all time best performance by finishing 20th in qualification at the 2001 edition with a jump of 6.04m. With a polished Falaiye on the 2009 edition, and 2008 Olympian Ruky Abdulai with a lifetime best jump of 6.74m this mark should also fall in Berlin.
- Brad Snyder's 2001 all time best finish of 8th in the men's shot put at 20.63m will also be threatened in Germany with Canadian record holder and Olympic Games 4th place finisher Dylan Armstrong on the prowl.

Notes médiatiques pour le Mondial

À propos du Championnat

- Berlin est le site du 12^{ème} Championnat du monde de l'AIFA. Les organisateurs précédents furent : Helsinki 1983, Rome 1987, Tokyo 1991, Stuttgart 1993, Göteborg 1995, Athènes 1997, Séville 1999, Edmonton 2001, Paris 2003, Helsinki 2005, Osaka 2007.
- Berlin comprend une population de presque 3,4 million de personnes qui habitent une aire de 890 km², dont des personnes provenant de plus de 200 pays différents.
- Les championnats du monde ont eu lieu dans le cadre des Jeux olympiques jusqu'en 1980. Suite à la commercialisation de l'athlétisme, l'Association internationale des fédérations d'athlétisme (AIFA) a débuté à organiser ses propres championnats du monde.
- De 1983 (Helsinki) à 1991 (Tokyo), les championnats du monde d'athlétisme de l'AIFA eurent lieu à tous les quatre ans. Par la suite, ils eurent lieu à tous les deux ans.
- Le Championnat du monde de l'AIFA aura lieu dans le stade olympique de Berlin (capacité assise de 74 218) dans le district de Charlottenburg, à Berlin.
- On attend 2500 athlètes de partout autour du monde qui concourront au Championnat mondial d'athlétisme de cette année.
- Un total de 3500 représentants des média viendra à Berlin pour rapporter les faits de ce méga-événement sportif autour du monde, et les épreuves seront diffusées dans plus de 190 pays.
- Le plus de médailles remportées par une seule personne aux championnats mondiaux est 14 (3 d'or, 4 d'argent, 7 de bronze) par Marlene Ottey (JAM). Chez les hommes, le meilleur total s'élève à 10 (8 d'or, 1 d'argent, 1 de bronze) par Carl Lewis (USA).
- Le plus de participations aux championnats est de 9 par le Canadien Tim Berrett. Kevin Sullivan suit avec une longue liste d'athlètes ayant concouru lors d'un total de 8 championnats mondiaux.
- 22 records mondiaux ont été établis lors de championnats du monde.

À propos de l'équipe

- Présentement classé 7^{ème} au monde, Gary Reed participe à son 3^{ème} championnat du monde de l'AIFA consécutif. Lors de sa dernière présence en 2007, il a remporté l'argent au 800 m.
- Le plus jeune membre de l'équipe est Kimberly Hyacinthe à 20 ans et 140 jours. Trois autres membres de l'équipe ont 20 ans; Sam Effah, Amonn Nelson et Brianne Theisen.
- Le membre le plus âgé de l'équipe est Alice Falaiye à 30 ans et 234 jours.
- Bryan Barnett arrive au Mondial comme le Canadien le plus rapide sur 100 m et 200 m. Barnett a réussi le doublé du sprint lors du Championnat canadien au début de juillet, marquant la première fois depuis Nicolas Macrozonaris en 2003 que cet exploit est accompli.
- Perdita Felicien a été deux fois médaillée lors des Mondiaux, gagnant l'or en 2003 et l'argent en 2007.
- Le meilleur classement réussi par une Canadienne au lancer du marteau fut une 20^{ème} place par Jennifer Joyce en 2005 avec un lancer de 64,34 m lors de la qualification. Attendez-vous que cette marque tombe à Berlin avec la récente détentrice du record canadien Sultana Frizell et Joyce sur l'équipe.
- On peut dire la même chose de la meilleure marque aux Mondiaux au saut en longueur féminin. Alice Falaiye détient la meilleure performance, ayant terminée 20^{ème} lors de la qualification de l'édition de 2001, avec un saut de 6,04 m. Avec une Falaiye bien rodée sur l'édition 2009 et l'olympienne de 2008 Ruky Abdulai, qui a un record personnel de 6,74 m, cette marque devrait être éclipsée à Berlin.
- Le meilleur classement à vie de Brad Snyder en 2001, avec une 8^{ème} place au lancer du poids grâce à un lancer de 20,63 m, sera aussi en danger avec le détenteur du record canadien, Dylan Armstrong, qui a terminé 4^{ème} aux derniers Jeux olympiques, rodant aux alentours.
